

European Board of Transplant Medicine (EBTM)

First Announcement

The 3rd Exam for awarding the European Diploma in Transplant Medicine is organised by the European Board of Transplant Medicine of the Division of Transplantation of the UEMS in collaboration with the European Society of Organ Transplantation (ESOT).

Application starts April 1st, 2013 and is opened for both Junior and Senior transplant physicians

Junior candidates

Junior transplant physicians should have a minimal 2-year training in transplantation medicine for applying.

Juniors should apply for the Common Transplantation Medicine Module together with one or more of the Organ Modules: Kidney, Pancreas, Heart, Lung, Liver and Intestinal/Multivisceral Transplantation.

Deadline for application is June 15th, 2013

Final examination of eligible candidates will take place in Vienna, Austria on September 7th, 2013, the day before ESOT meeting.

Venue: Austria Center Vienna IAKW - AGBruno-Kreisky-PLatz 1A-1220 Vienna

Senior candidates

Senior transplant physicians with at least 10 years of continuous experience as specialists practicing in formal nationally recognized posts are eligible to apply for an Honorary Diploma and be exempted of the examination.

Seniors can apply for the following modules: Kidney, Pancreas, Heart, Lung, Liver and Intestinal/Multivisceral Transplantation.

For Honorary Diploma, Deadline for application is September 15th, 2013

For more information regarding the eligibility criteria, application and examination process please visit:
<http://www.bdc.de/bdc/uems/uems.nsf/daa5c3b3a337549dc125691a003d43cd/188563d5e6837b1ac12578550032831d?OpenDocument>

or contact:

Patrizia Burra, Chair of the European Board of Transplant Medicine at burra@unipd.it

Susanne Beckebaum, Senior Secretary of the European Board of Transplant Medicine at susanne.beckebaum@uk-essen.de

Christophe Duvoux, Junior Secretary of the European Board of Transplant Medicine at christophe.duvoux@hmn.aphp.fr

UEMS Operational Office at office@uemssurg.org